

Regina Business Law

Regina Business Law - Our Business Law team helps companies of all sizes and types in attaining their goals. We believe in and offer client-centered and value-based legal assistance. With our trademark combination of traditional and innovative methods to business law, we assist many of this country's most successful and well-known commercial enterprises, and help with development ranging in size from millions to hundreds of millions of dollars.

We have engineers and specialists all around North America and all-around the world that work together with our company's lawyers as an integrated group. Our legal recommendation has assisted lots of major resource-based developments attain their objectives, from pulp and paper to agribusiness, from mining projects to oil and gas developments. We design creative partnerships and joint ventures among co-operatives, governments, companies, merchant bankers, venture capitalists and financial institutions.

We provide suggestion to our clients on numerous problems consisting of: mergers, acquisitions and divestitures all through the whole transaction cycle, comprising structuring, legal due diligence, and negotiating letters of intent, offers to purchase and agreements of purchase and sale.

In order to help serve our clients in the areas of tax planning and the governance and structuring of various entities, our company has a strong practice in commercial law. We work on several concerns including negotiated project financing, construction and engineering agreements, and global commodity marketing agreements for business enterprises.

Our assistance for medium sized to small companies help to assist grassroots entrepreneurship. We could help in developing effective business and management structures. We could help entrepreneurs' access capital and establish positive relationships along with customers and suppliers. Our lawyers have extensive skill with cross-border transactions and could help small businesses to become successful exporters.