Regina Personal Injury - A personal injury can be a confusing and overwhelming experience. Your life could be turned upside down, financially, physically and emotionally. You need trusted and experienced advisors you can count on. Our senior law clerk and personal injury lawyer have the specialized legal skill to be able to provide you with professional representation and suggestion. We can help you to understand the legislation as it applies to your situation, and we will take the time to discuss all of your choices. We would be available from beginning to end of the personal injury legal process.

We offer free of charge, your first consultation with a skilled personal injury lawyer. You may have to pay an initial retainer fee, if we accept your case on a "contingency fee" basis. If we can not acquire compensation for you, you will pay nothing in legal fees. We will be given a percentage of the settlement if we are successful in obtaining compensation. We would ensure that you know all the facts of the retainer agreement before you sign.

You have to contact us as soon as possible after your injury in order to prevent your rights from expiring. The specific time periods within which you should bring your claim could differ from a few days to a couple of years.

Our extensive knowledge extends into the following areas of personal injury: motor vehicle accidents; dog bites and animal attacks; long-term disability claims, pension plan appeals and slip and fall injuries.

Personal injury cases are settled out of court. The aim of our firm is to be able to offer effectual negotiation, whilst working towards avoiding expensive court proceedings. If it does become necessary, we have knowledgeable litigators who will represent you before all levels of the courts.
