

DUI Lawyers Regina

DUI Lawyers Regina - Our lawyers in the field of Intellectual Property Law help our numerous clients in matters enforcing, acquiring, protecting, exploiting, defending, licensing, marketing and advertising their intellectual property. We provide our various services connected to trade-marks, patents, copyright, industrial designs and trade secrets.

We offer both timely and effective advice to all clients in all aspects of intellectual property law. Our lawyers have great skill in structuring, documenting and implementing coordinated protection and enforcement of all types and forms of domestic and international property rights.

In today's competitive business situation, the effective enforcement of intellectual property rights is key. Many of our firm's lawyers are known as the very best within the country. We represent clients before federal and provincial courts and before various administrative agencies.

Our clients benefit from our multidisciplinary approach. We work directly with experts in the Corporate Finance Group, Entertainment, Media, Sports and Communications Team, tax Group and Corporate/Commercial Group. We help clients in the creation, utilization, protection and licensing of information technology, internet content and musical works. We help with business acquisitions which have an intellectual property aspect. We represent lenders and borrowers concerning financings secured by intellectual property.