

Trademark Lawyer Regina

Trademark Lawyer Regina - Your company's visible identity is established with a trade-mark. A trade-mark helps distinguish your firm's products and services from the products and services of your competitors. The reputation of your company is built and maintained on its foundation, its brand. Our firm understands that a company's trade-mark is among its most-valuable assets. From package design to advertising to product development, a substantial amount of resources are used in developing and protecting a firm's brand.

Our office offers all services connected to trade-marks. We file and prosecute trade-mark applications and we can conduct trade-mark searches so as to make certain that the trade-mark is accessible for use and registration. And we actively implement trade-mark rights against infringement. Our firm can also assist with global trade-mark applications through our established global network of trade-mark agents.

We offer trade-mark infringement and validity opinions, and trade-mark registrability searches and availability searches. We offer trade-mark registrations, consisting of the preparation and prosecution of trade-mark applications. We likewise oversee global trade-mark applications.

A trade-mark opposition comprises the cancellation proceedings of registrations, for non-use or other reasons and opposing the registration of confusing trade-marks by other entities. When infringement causes litigation, our trade-mark litigators would act for our clients through domain name and infringement disputes.
