

Regina Accident Lawyer

Regina Accident Lawyer - Our firm of Intellectual Property lawyers understand how much value and importance you put on intellectual property. We offer different legal services in order to assist you protect and license your intellectual property to trademarks, trade secrets, industrial designs and copyright. Our clients are those included within the licensing, use, creation, acquisition and protection of intellectual property. Our IP lawyers have numerous years of knowledge securing trademark, patent, copyright and industrial design registrations globally and domestically. We are experienced at enforcing your intellectual property rights.

We provide the following Patent services: prosecution, preparation and filing of patent applications; prior art searching; assignments and licensing; enforcement.

We likewise provide advice and services for Trademarks consisting of: opinions and searching relating to registration of design, word, certification or public authority marks and distinguishing guises; filing and preparation of applications for registration; licensing, franchising and assignment agreements; opposition procedures before the Trade-mark Opposition Board; passing-off opinions and infringements; expungent (removal) applications and renewals; trademark enforcement and defense.

For some Copyright issues, we offer searching; licensing of literary (including software), dramatic and musical works; prosecution, preparation and filing of applications for registration; infringement opinions; assignment and copyright protected works and sale of copyright; copyright defense and enforcement.

We can help your company with the protection of Trade Secrets so as to keep your competitive advantage. We can craft agreements and programs to be able to protect confidential data.

We offer searching and availability opinions for Industrial Designs; licensing and assignment; preparation, filing and prosecution of registration applications.

We have lots of clients from a variety of industries like for instance agriculture, entertainment, manufacturing, hotels, technology and travel.