

Regina Bankruptcy

Regina Bankruptcy - During the past couple of decades, our company has offered suggestion on all aspects of bankruptcy law, comprising commercial litigation, creditors' remedies, and reorganizations and restructurings. Our profile is highly regarded internationally, and as such a large percentage of our clients is internationally based. Much of our business regards cross-border insolvencies and restructuring between Canada and the United States. We are experienced in various matters due to our many domestic relationships together with other professionals and lenders. Our knowledge comprises working along with commercial and financial groups, international and domestic financial institutions, creditor's committees, trustees, investors, receivers, debtors and acquirers in insolvencies and reorganizations.

Members of our practice helped develop the system of Canadian cross-border insolvency. Also, the federal and local government takes into consideration when amending the Canadian laws involving international trades. We are proud to be active members of different global insolvency organizations.
